

BTEC National Diploma in Civil Engineering Level 3

In a nutshell

The course is ideal for those following a career in the technical disciplines of the construction industry.

This course is for...

...those looking to work in architecture, planning, building design, project management, quantity surveying, building surveying and as CAD technicians

Course content

The course will cover the following:

Planning
Sustainability
Designing or working as part of a site team